THE COLLECT

O merciful God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life; in whom whosoever believeth shall live, though he die; and whosoever liveth, and believeth in Him, shall not die eternally; who also hath taught us (by His holy Apostle Saint Paul) not to be sorry, as men without hope, for them that sleep in him; we meekly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that, when we shall depart this life, we may rest in him, as our hope is that our brother doth; and that, at the general Resurrection in the last day, we may be found acceptable in thy sight, and receive that blessing, which thy well beloved Son shall then pronounce to all that love and fear thee, saying, come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world; grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Redeemer.

Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.

HYMN

FOR all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confess'd,
Thy Name, O Jesu, be for ever blest.

Alleluia !

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light.

Alleluia !

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia !

O blest communion ! fellowship Divine !

We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.

Alleluia !

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

Alleluia !

The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

Alleluia !

But lo ! there breaks a yet more glorious day;

The Saints triumphant rise in bright array:
The King of glory passes on His way.

Alleluia !

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Alleluia !

Amen.

Sale of Manor Farm to Partington's Trustees

- Bernard and Peggy Westcott came to live in Manor Farm in 1951.
- They had previously had a cattle ranch in Argentina
- Bernard's Father had been Lord Mayor of Manchester and had used a family trust to buy the farm.
- Bernard's mother was not seeing their daughter Sue so they returned to England.
- Bernard was a Parish Councillor and Recreation Ground Trustee and Peggy was a keen member of the WI and Church Choir
- They leased a new right of way into the Rec and an extra half acre on to the end of the Rec.

Sale of Warren Farm

- In 1951 to Robert Brett was a Poultry Farmer from Bromham who never took any interest in the village and sold again within a couple of years
- Followed by Jack and Ken Parrish from Higham Gobion
- When Jack's daughter Candy married Richard Godber they moved in to Warren Farm. They took a very active role in the village, Richard being a Parish Councillor and a Recreation Ground trustee and always brought a cricket 11 to play the village side.
- Richards father Joe was Minister of Agriculture.
- Richard later became High Sheriff of Bucks.

Lay reader Cook from Bletchley a short fat man with a shiny bald head and beady eyes

- Isn't it strange, that Princes and Kings
- And Clowns that prance in Sawdust Rings
- And ordinary folk like you and me
- Are on our way to eternity
- By this time the small boys giggles had spread to the rest of the choir as a stream of urine flowed down the Chancel, the boys clearly had not controlled themselves
